Main goals in the period 2024-2026

- To encourage a lively technical exchange in matters related to the investigation and application of building materials in the region.
- To liaise with existing technical and scientific networks in the region and coordinate dissemination activities.
- To increase the number of activities (webinars, seminars, conferences, courses, etc.) related to the investigation and application of building materials in the region, with encouragement of participation of young scientists.

Activities foreseen

- Co-sponsoring international events taking place in the region (hopefully with the industry)
- Webinars: in the format Rok&Tok (1 hours with Q&A), and later on YouTube.
- Online courses: on specific themes, given by senior scientists from the network (including guest lecturers)
- Short courses: associated with conferences
- Technical discussions in work groups targeting specific subjects (related to the main topics). Potential publication of whitepapers (example, paper published in coordination with FICEM 2022)

In collaboration with FICEM Academy
